

Antti Syrjanen, VP Portfolio Management, Thuraya Telecommunications - Bio

Antti has a wealth of product management, technical and commercial experience gathered from working in various global organizations including Nokia and Inmarsat. He has been involved in developing complete solutions including service, software and applications, products, SaaS platforms for both mobile and satellite communication. Antti is specialized in product innovation, complete solution definition (service, hardware, digital), portfolio design and marketing and portfolio go to market planning. Antti is native of Finland but has lived in USA as well as in UK and other European countries. Antti has a master's degree from Helsinki University of Technology.